FLORENCE GRISWOLD MUSEUM

ANNUAL REPORT 2022

A MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Dear Members,

AS I LOOK BACK ON 2022, I view a museum that continues to build a foundation for growth and sustainability. In 2021 a new strategic plan was approved, a feasibility study completed, and we set our sights on a future that included change. We spent the first quarter of the year enjoying the very popular New London County Quilts & Bed Covers 1750-1825, a blockbuster that brought a new audience to the Museum and enlivened the galleries during the winter months. In May, Dana Sherwood, Artist-in-Residence, unveiled Dana Sherwood: Animal Appetites & Other Encounters in Wildness, a show that challenged our beliefs about humans' relationship to the rest of the animal kingdom. New Bylaws were passed at the Annual Meeting and while most people would consider them dry, the changes allow the Museum to conduct business in a more nimble manner. On a beautiful June day, author Marta McDowell kept nearly 300 attendees spellbound at the annual Garden Luncheon. At the tail end of the July, Director Becky Beaulieu announced that she had been offered the opportunity to lead the Taft Museum of Art in Cincinnati, Ohio. She departed in early August to take on the new challenge.

The strong, resilient foundation built by the former Directors, former and current Trustees, and staff carried us through the next six months. Within days of Becky's announcement, a plan was in place. Kay Knight Clarke led the Search Committee, and, with the help of Lora Urbanelli of Museum Search and Reference, created and implemented a timeline that had a candidate before the Board at their December meeting for approval.

As I reported in the last On View, I had the unique opportunity to take on the role of Interim Director until new leadership was on board. It was an amazing experience to work so closely with the staff, to be part of the daily hum of the Museum, and to ensure that everything was 'shipshape' when the new Executive Director arrived. It was business as usual: the Benefit was out of this world, Dreams & Memories opened in October, programming continuously brought visitors to the Museum, Wee Faerie Village was another success story, and the Annual Fund broke records.

The year ended with preparations for the arrival of our new Executive Director, Joshua Campbell Torrance, who comes to us from the Webb Deane Stevens Museum in Wethersfield. He has also been an Executive Director at the Bennington Museum in Vermont, and Woodlawn Museum, Gardens & Park in Maine. He and I started building our relationship even before he officially arrived, meeting at O'Rourke's Diner in Middletown and chatting frequently on the telephone. Joshua has exactly what the Museum needs to move us forward into the future: over 22 years of Executive leadership, financial acumen, and charisma! My six months as Interim Director brings a greater understanding to our partnership. I look forward to the work we will do together and what the future holds.

A final reflection for 2022: we said goodbye to our dear friend and supporter Andy Baxter. He is missed by everyone, but his energy and enthusiasm are with us. We welcomed Val Koif to the board and immediately put her to work on Search Committee. Deborah Butler transitioned to become an Honorary Trustee. I continue to see new faces on standing committees which is great for the Museum.

To Members and staff: I want to thank you for your continued support and commitment to the Museum, especially during the last five months of 2022. It takes all of us to shape what this Museum is today and what it will be tomorrow.

Onward!

Deborah Moore
Chair of the Board of Trustees

Thank you Deb

THE STAFF OF THE Florence Griswold Museum would like to thank our friend Deborah Moore who, after Becky's departure, led the Museum not only as our Chair of the Board of Trustees, but as our Interim Executive Director as well. Deb delayed her retirement to work tirelessly alongside us every day. We are grateful for her dedication and guidance and look forward to hearing about her adventures on the high seas with husband Roy and four-legged sailor Artoo.

While we will miss seeing Deb on a daily basis, we know that she's still at the helm and eager to be a part of what's next for the Museum!

A NOTE FROM OUR NEW EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

My sincerest thanks for the many warm welcomes I have already received. Since my arrival on February 6, I have had the great pleasure of meeting many Museum Members and friends and look forward to getting to know more of you. These first few months have been about listening and learning. Having visited the Florence Griswold Museum multiple times, my family and I were always struck by the passion, energy, and excitement here. I am eager to work with our devoted board and dedicated staff to share this fantastic place with as large an audience as possible. I hope you will join us on this journey.

See you soon,

Joshua Campbell Torrance
Executive Director

>> We invite you to read about Joshua on the Museum's website and hope that you will introduce yourself to him at one of our many upcoming events.

2022 WAS A WHIRLWIND YEAR for the Finance Department. When I arrived in May, I was grateful to inherit a Finance Department that has served this Museum and our community well for many years. And while we don't deliver value in the traditional way in Finance, it is incumbent upon us to support the Museum's mission and programs in ways that help deliver the experiences that are most important to our community.

While 2022 had its financial hurdles, we were able to tackle many maintenance and IT infrastructure issues. Through replacing our servers, bringing wi-fi to the Robert F. Schumann Artists' Trail, launching upgrades of HVAC infrastructure to support the galleries, and several other projects, we were able to address issues that enhance visitor experience and comfort. We expanded our focus to include long-awaited infrastructure lifecycle transformations, in addition to delivering quality programming. Education programs continued to show growth, as well as revenues from experiences in the Shop, at Café Flo, and at the tea-table.

Related to our Strategic Plan, we've accomplished the following:

- Leveraging technology to drive efficiencies in our business processes
- Implemented a Financial Policy, Investment Policy, and Personnel Policy to support excellence in all areas

Looking ahead, the Board approved the 2023 budget on December 15 which created two new full-time positions in our Education and Visitor Services teams. Through careful shopping, we were able to maintain employee benefits at their current high standard while reducing the overall cost to the Museum. We also committed to continuing facilities improvements to prepare for the year ahead. All these investments in staff, facilities, and programming are made to expand our reach and deliver the quality experiences our Members and visitors have come to expect, and we are committed to providing.

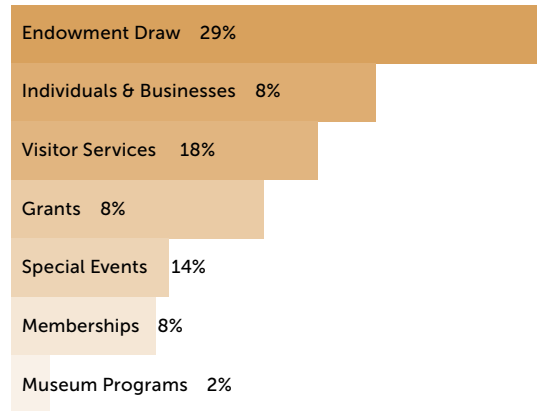

My best wishes for 2023,

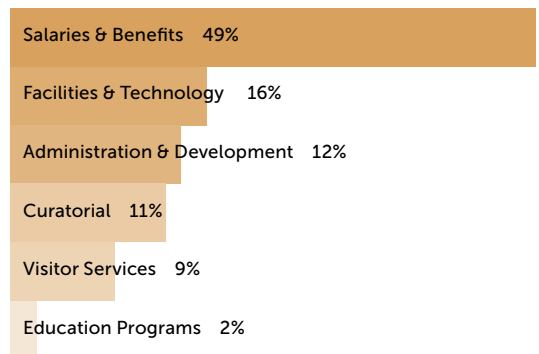

A. Barry Adams
Director of Finance

Such a lovely museum. Friendly staff, beautiful architecture, and art, and if you happen to eat at Café Flo, their food and service are out of this world. An overall great and peaceful atmosphere. Definitely worth the drive to visit and spend a memorable day there.

STRATEGIC PLAN

Expand the Museum's identity around our established mission of fostering the understanding of American art, with emphasis on the art, history, and landscape of Connecticut.

Continue to enhance the permanent collection in conjunction with our mission.

As an outgrowth of the relationship nurtured with Mark Dion since Fragile Earth, the artist generously donated a print to the collection.

Established the Helen Kriebel Fund for Acquisition of Sculpture.

Embrace partnerships and collaborations to better connect our identity and mission to audiences.

Accepted into the national MOMSI (Measurement of Museums Social Impact) project funded by the Institute of Museum and Library Services.

Build upon the established excellence inherent in our educational programming providing a deeper understanding and appreciation of American art.

Created and distributed art kits for children and adults.

Prepared "Make and Take" kits for sale in the Rafal Landscape Center.

Offered art lessons virtually or in-person for schools, scouts, homeschoolers, libraries, and senior centers.

Created and sold 27 different FOLLY WOODS crafting kits.

Offer an exhibitions program and associated print and online resources that balances the elements of our mission.

Presented lectures virtually, reaching a wider audience (regional and national) than in-person events could have.

The Expanding Horizons: Celebrating Twenty Years of The Hartford Steam Boiler Collection exhibition's speaker series featured several of the contributing scholars, who provided a broader context for their object labels.

Cement the Museum's role and purpose as a landmark in the community and a cultural destination.

National media attention included The Boston Globe tapping Social & Solitary as one of "New England's 10 Hottest Museum Shows for Summer;" USA Today naming the Griswold House one of the "10 Best Historic Houses to visit in New England;" and a full-length feature in Preservation Magazine (a publication of the National Trust for Historic Preservation).

Co-sponsored Old Lyme Town Band and ice cream social with other civic and cultural organizations.

Continually look for opportunities to engage new audiences, including using new technologies and platforms as they arise.

A short residency by artist Jackie Sumell resulted in a garden bed adjacent to the Griswold House in the form of a solitary confinement cell.

Created 14 YouTube videos with total of 2,059 views.
